

Workshop What happened to government?

On the occasion of the retirement of Hans Bennis

Organisers: University of Amsterdam and Meertens Institute

18 March 2017

Singel 425, Amsterdam; UvA University Library, Doelenzaal

- 10.00-10.45 Tim Stowell
UCLA
Government by Agreement
- 10.45-11.15 COFFEE BREAK
- 11.15-12.00 Ian Roberts
University of Cambridge
Government, Agreement and Minimality
- 12.00-13.15 LUNCH
- 13.15-14.00 Henk van Riemsdijk
Arezzo
Government Conflicts and their Resolution – some Musings
- 14.00-14.45 Marcel den Dikken
Eötvös Loránd University/Hungarian Academy of Sciences
What happened to government? It's alive and kicking, and called 'Agree'
- 14.45-15.30 Cecilia Poletto
Universities of Frankfurt and Padua
From government to spec-head: a tour on null and lexically realized subjects in Old Italian
- 15.30-16.00 COFFEE BREAK
- 16.00-16.30 Jeroen van Craenenbroeck and Marjo van Koppen
Leuven University and Utrecht University
Look! Kaatje is still not heard sing a song (even without government)

16.30-17.00 Gertjan Postma

Meertens Institute

Residues of Government – the PRO-Theorem

17.00-17.30 Hedde Zeijlstra

University of Göttingen

Government and Feature Checking

17.30-18.00 Hans Bennis

NTU

Agreement and Government in the Domain of Adjectival Inflection